Instructions:

For the Campfire Costume:

1. Cut the brown cardstock into strips and roll into tubes for logs. Glue edges together with Tacky Glue and let dry.
2. Tear brown fabrics into strips to wrap around tubes, using use Quick Dry Fabric Fusion to glue in place.
3. Use Quick Dry Fabric Fusion to adhere logs to each other to create a "wood pile."
4. Cut flame shapes from stiff felt in fire colors and layer together with glue to create flames. Adhere to logs with Quick Dry Fabric Fusion.
5. Cut tufts of tulle and adhere to logs as well to add dimension.
6. Crumple balls of brown paper and paint with white and gray paint to create "rocks." Adhere to logs.
7. Cut a strip of ribbon to fit around waist, leaving room for tying. Glue to the back side of campfire.

For the S'mores Costume, first cut two large pieces of cardboard to desired size. Measure waist and create an oval cutout in the middle to fit; cut an access line from the edge of one side of the cardboard to the oval cutout, making the section wide enough to stretch apart and slip through when putting the costume on. Glue foam squares onto the cardboard with Tacky Glue, evenly spaced, then use a craft knife to trim off the portions by the waist to fit around curves.

Drape brown fabric over foam squares and glue in place with Tacky Glue to create chocolate. Cut out the center section and access section for waist. Glue edges down for a finished look.

Use a brown or black marker to create graham cracker texture effects on top of second piece of cardboard. Cut an opening for the neck with an access cut as well.

Cut two small cardboard squares for headband and draw graham cracker details on the top piece to look like the main costume piece. Use Tacky Glue to glue a large white pom-pom in between pieces to create mini s'more. Glue s'more to headband and let dry completely.

We might be biased, or we might be really hungry, but we think this S'mores Couple's Costume looks good enough to eat!
